JEALOUSY THE MOTIVE.
Handsomeness Widowed Shot to Death at Albany, N. Y.
Albany, N. Y., Nov. 29.—Joseph F.
White, for ten years orderly in the state treasurer's office, Monday fatally shot Mrs. Josephine Russell, a handsome widow. Jealousy was the only apparent motive. White is sixty-five years old and a widower. He had just been released from the hospital and his friends claim that he was intoxicated when he did the shooting.
Mrs. Russell was thirty-five years old. White formerly boarded with the woman. Early in the morning he appeared at a milk depot where Mrs.
Russell traded and spent the day until she came in, when he shot her in the neck. She fell and then, slowly and with deliberate aim, White fired three more shots into her body. He made no attempt to escape and when arrested denied committing the crime.
Mrs. Russell was taken unconscious to a hospital where she soon died.

The Most Amazing
Sale of Millinery
IN THE HISTORY OF BRAINERD

WE have decided to make a change in Brainerd the first of January, 1905. Therefore our Sale will begin at once. No such cut prices were ever before given in the City of Brainerd. From Pattern Hats to the cheapest, every one will be sacrificed to the lowest notch. Also everything in the Millinery line.

TASK NEARLY ENDED

JAPANESE OPERATIONS AGAINST
PORT ARTHUR ARE MEETING WITH SUCCESS.

TAKING THE LAST OBSTACLE

LIGHT ARTILLERY DRIVING THE
RUSSIANS FROM AN IMPOR-TANT POSITION.

Tokio, Nov. 29.—It is reported that the attack against 203-Metre hill by Japanese light artillery is succeeding.
It is estimated that 90 per cent of the work of the complete occupation of Port Arthur will be finished with this height in the possession of the Japanese. No part of the harbor of Port Arthur will then be concealed from the Japanese.

MAY BE THE BEGINNING.

Skirmishes May Lead to Big Battle
Near Mukden.

London, Nov. 29.—Generals Kuro-patkin and Sakharoff are sending daily
long details of apparently rather unimportant fighting, which may, however, possibly turn out to be the beginning of another great battle deciding the fate of Mukden.

Japanese in London decline to believe that there will be a cessation of hostilities till spring.

General Sakharoff in addition to his report of the Japanese attack on Teingetchen, announces that the Japanese in force occupied the village of Nanbantza and the adjoining ravine
in front of Poutiloff (Lone Tree) hill.

No further news from Port Arthur has been received beyond reports from Shanghai that the storming of the Russian stronghold continues.

According to the Daily Telegraph's dispatch from Chefoo, very few of Admiral Togo's ships are now seen blockading Port Arthur.

REPORT ACTIVE SKIRMISHING.

General Kuropatkin Says Japs Are Ac-

St. Petersburg, Nov. 29.—General
Kuropatkin reports that there have been active skirmishing on the left flank for three days. It is the opinion of the general staff that the Japanese intend taking the offensive, as they cannot afford to wait until the Russians are further reinforced. It is held that the fighting to the eastward is doubtless with the purpose of feeling out the Russian positions preparatory to an advance in that direction,
but as there are about 7,000 Russian troops southwest of Sintsintin, where fighting occurred on Nov. 26, and probably twice as many more in the mountains between Bentslaputze and Sintsintin, any Japanese move from this quarter would entail serious fighting.

CHECKED BY ARTILLERY FIRE.

Jap Attack Upon Tsinkhetchen Ends
in Failure.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 29.—General
Sakharoff telegraphs as follows:

"The Japanese attack on Tsink-hetchen was checked by our artillery fire, and the fighting ceased at 6 o'clock in the evening of Nov. 27. At no point did the enemy advance nearer than within 600 paces of our positions. In the midst of the battle a blinding snow storm caused a suspension of hostilities, and when the weather cleared at 3 o'clock in the afternoon
a turning movement against our right flank was observed."

FIGHTING STILL CONTINUES.

Japs Keep Up Attack Upon Russian Position.

Suenkin, Nov. 29.—The attack by the Japanese upon General Rennenkamp's position on Nov. 24 resulted in three days' fighting at Tsinkhetchen, near Da-pass. Though the Japanese have been repulsed the fighting still continues. The Japanese have succeeded in placing several big siege guns in position with which they will be able to seriously

harrass the Russians.

RUSSIAN SQUADRON COALING.

Rejostvsky's Ships Taking on Fuel
Near Swakopmund.

Cape Town, Cape Colony, Nov. 29.—
A dispatch to the Argus says that Admiral Rejostvsky's division of the Russian Second Pacific squadron is coaling off Swakopmund, German Southwest Africa.

Kaulbars Going to Mukden.

Odessa, Russia, Nov. 29.—General
Kaulbars, commander of the Third
day for Mukden where he expects to arrive Dec. 14.

DATE NOT YET FIXED.

Preliminaries Being Arranged for Meeting of North Sea Commission.

London, Nov. 29.—No date has yet been fixed for the meeting of the North sea commission, but the preliminaries are being arranged. The British and Russian ambassadors visited Foreign Minister Goluchowsky at Vienna Monday to arrange the choice of an Austrian admiral should that be found necessary.

HIGH BANK CAVES IN.

Two Minnesota Miners Suffocated to Death.

Duluth, Nov. 29.—Through the caving in of a forty-five-foot high bank at a Mountain Iron open pit mine, Matt Rokka and John Kogla, two miners, were suffocated to death Monday afternoon. The bodies were recovered.
Both victims were married.

Mrs. Edward C. Wall Dead.

Minneapolis, Nov. 29.—Mrs. Edward
C. Wall died suddenly Monday night after a short illness. Mrs. Wall was the wife of Edward C. Wall, well known in business and political circles
throughout the country.

SUSPECTS IDENTIFIED

CHAIN OF EVIDENCE AGAINST
THREE MINNEAPOLIS MEN
GROWS STRONGER.

Minneapolis, Nov. 29.—The chain
of evidence against Orlin Kalderwit, John Kolb and Charles Hammond, suspected of the murder of little Freddie King at Columbia Heights Nov.
22, is growing stronger.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorn have positively identified Kalderwit and Hammond as two of the three men seen in front of the saloon a few moments before the murder. Both were certain that Kalderwit and Hammond were there.
There was a short man in the trio
and this description tallies with Kolb.
In addition, there were others who saw the men and identified them as persons seen in the locality.

Three days' confinement in cells in the central police station is telling on the men and there seems to be a disposition on the part of Kalderwit and Kolb to tell what they know about the affair, and Hammond, who has been surly, is inclined to be tractable.

QUARLES TAKING NO CHANCES.

Wisconsin Senator Gets Out Nomination Papers.

Milwaukee, Nov. 29.—Nomination
papers in accordance with the provision of the primary election law
have been prepared and will be circulated during the day in the interest of United States Senator Joseph V.
Quarles, who is a candidate for re-election. The papers are prepared in view of the fact that the primary election law is now in full force, and that the candidate for senator must be nominated at a special primary to be held two weeks before the time of the election of a senator by the legislature in January.

Officials of the state have not yet announced their decision with regard to the applicability of the primary law
to the senatorial election, but Mr.
Quarles is convinced that the primary is necessary, and will take no chances of overlooking necessary preliminaries for the approaching contest.

THE PRESIDENT AT PITTSBURG.

Train of the Chief Executive Makes
Only a Brief Stop.

Pittsburg, Nov. 29.—The train bearing President Roosevelt to Washington from St. Louis arrived in Pittsburg at 8:30 p. m. and departed ten minutes later. Only one stop was made between Denison, O., and this city. At Denison the president was greeted by a great crowd. Scores of school children were there. On the journey to St. Louis the president was presented a raccoon, which is being taken back to Washington. In remarks at Denison the president said:

"I want to tell you all 'Good evening,' and say how pleased I am to see you again, and to tell you that the 'coon' is getting along well. He feels on everything and shows a little inclination to feed on every man too. I wish you good health and good luck, especially the little folks."

Woman Commits Suicide.

Washington, Nov. 29.—Mrs. Elizabeth McComas, wife of Ernest R. Mc-Comas of the postoffice department, committed suicide by cutting her throat. Mrs. McComas was a daughter of General Mower. Ill health was assigned as the cause of her act.

TWO ITALIANS KILLED

RESULT OF A BRIEF BATTLE ON THE STREETS OF A PENN-SYLVANIA TOWN.

TRIED TO RESCUE COMRADE

BANG OF TIGHTS SHOOT DOWN ESCORT OF OFFICER WITH THE PRISONER.

Scranton, Pa., Nov. 29.—As a result of the efforts of the better class of Italians in and around Carbondale to rid their colonies of the members of a lawless gang who have been committing many outrages, a street battle occurred at that place Monday night which was attended with the loss of two lives.

At 8 o'clock Santo Carressi, one of the gang, was caught by a constable in the act of holding up and levying tribute on one of the Italians of the colony. The constable and three of the law and order men started to take Carressi to jail. Word was quickly passed to the gang's headquarters in a nearby saloon and four of them rushed out and opened fire on the constable and his posse. The latter returned the fire. When the attacking party emptied their revolvers they fled,
leaving all three of the constable's escort lying in the road with bullets
in their bodies. The constable protected himself by holding his prisoner
in front of him.

Joseph Tolerico was shot through the head and heart and died in a few minutes. Frank Ferrosi died at the emergency hospital from a bullet in his breast near the heart and another in the abdomen. The third victim received a bullet in the arm and after recovering from the shock was able to walk home.

No trace has been found of the fugitive assailants.

It is believed the gang is affiliated with the Mafia or some other like organization, as part of the tribute money is sent to headquarters in New York, according to the statements made by members of the gang when levying tribute.

Among the outrages recently perpetrated was the knifing of four men who refused to pay tribute. In each instance the victim was called out of his house late at night and slashed across the face.

MINISTER ATTEMPTS MURDER.

Says He Intended to Kill a California
Judge.

San Francisco, Nov. 29.—Rev. Isaac Selby of Australia, plaintiff in a damage suit, shot at Superior Judge Hebbard Monday while the latter was on the bench. The bullet came within an inch of the judge's head and lodged in the back of his chair. Selby was at once removed to the city prison and charged with attempt to commit murder.

Selby recently was sued for divorce.
He conducted his own defense, but was unsuccessful, a decree against him
being granted.

Judge Hebbard, who issued the decrees, was treating a case when Selby arose from a seat in the courtroom and fired point blank at the judge, who rushed from the bench and grappled with his assailant, preventing him from firing another shot. Before being taken to his cell Selby said:

"I shot at Judge Hebbard for a man that seems the only way for a man to get justice in this country. My only regret is that I seem to have bungled matters considerably. My intention was to kill him, but I was a trifle nervous."

WITH HER HEAD CRUSHED IN.

Body of a New York Woman Found in Her Apartment.

New York, Nov. 29.—With her head crushed in, the body of Mrs. Margaret Keeler was found in her apartment on the upper East Side of New York late Monday. Near by was a ten-inch coupling pin, with which she had evidently been murdered, for one end of it was covered with blood.

The Keeler family consisted of the husband, who is employed in a local mercantile establishment, James,
aged twelve, and Mabel, aged nine.

The children say they left home as usual Monday morning for school.
Their father had gone to work earlier
and when they started out their mother was in good spirits. At noon they found the door of the apartment locked, but thought their mother was out shopping. In the afternoon the boy climbed the fire escape and found his mother's body on her bed. She had been dead several hours.

Missing from the flat was jewelry worth $400 and also $200 in cash.

ROBBER FATALLY WOUNDED.

Citizens of Fonda, Ia., Battle With Bandits.

Sioux City, Ia., Nov. 29.—In a battle between a posse of citizens and three robbers at Fonda, Ia., one of the robbers, whose name is not known, was shot and fatally wounded. The other two escaped, but a posse is in pursuit.
The small amount of booty secured
was found on the wounded crackman.

Iowa College Wins Prizes.

Chicago, Nov. 29.—Monday was practically the opening day at the livestock show, and when it closed in the evening over 47,000 people had passed through the gates. Iowa agricultural college carried off the greatest number of prizes, winning five first prizes.

H. F. MICHAEL CO.

Come in for a McCall's Fashion Plate.

THINKS PEABODY WILL RETIRE.
Alva Adams Expects No Trouble Over Governorship.

Denver, Nov. 29.—Governor-Elect Alva Adams came to Denver from his home in Pueblo Monday and will remain until after the banquet to be given in his honor Tuesday night. He does not take the threat of the Republicans to prevent his accession to the governorship seriously and has rented a house here for the two years of his term. Mr. Adams expressed the opinion that Governor Peabody,
after an investigation of the election returns, would reach the conclusion that he was not the people's choice
for governor and would gracefully retire.

It is announced that Governor Peabody will appoint the two additional Justices of the supreme court, irrespective of whether he holds office the next term or not. Under the constitutional amendment adopted at the recent election the court of appeals and supreme court consolidate on April 5
next, and two of the seven judges provided for are to be named by the governor. The legislature will meet one week before the next term of governor begins. During that time or prior the state canvassing board will declare the amendment adopted. Governor Peabody will make the appointments and the senate, if Republican, will confirm them. Should the Democrats control the senate Governor Peabody's appointments will be rejected and Governor Adams will appoint the two judges. It appears that the Democrats will control the senate by a majority of two or three, unless the state canvassing board throws out two or more of the Democrats who are apparently elected, as planned by the Republicans, who are preparing charges of fraud, and sends the Republican candidates. The Democrats are endeavoring to checkmate their opponents by preparations to prosecute Republican workers for alleged violations of the election laws.

NEW PHASE IN FRAUD CASES.
Another Person May Be Involved in Oregon Affair.

Portland, Ore., Nov. 29.—A new phase in the land fraud trial developed Monday when the name of George A. Howe, to whom was deeded seven of the alleged bogus homestead titles, was brought into the case. Further documentary evidence brought to light that Howe had in turn deeded to Horace G. McKinley a tract of land in Section 15 south, Range 1 east.
District Attorney Hall announced to the court that the government would prove that Howe is in reality one of the conspirators under another name.

The government announced during the proceedings that it would prove the object of the alleged conspirators in locating in 11-7 was not to acquire those lands permanently, but merely to give them scrip rights, that they might exchange scrip for land to which they desired to acquire title.

WORK OF DESPERADOES.
Canadian Lines Being Blown Up in the Northwest.

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 29.—Foiled
in a daring attempt to levy $100,000
by blackmailing the Canadian Pacific and Canadian Northern railways, an organized gang of desperadoes, it is believed, is fulfilling threats to blow up the various lines at different points in the Canadian Northwest. What is more, the police authorities also attribute several holdups and similar outrages to these men. So completely have they hidden all trace of their identity that traveling by rail has become dangerous. The police are baffled and, although a score of private detectives have been working hard in hand with the secret service men of the two railroads, nothing has come out of their investigations.

NEW JURY NECESSARY.
Illness of Edward Dressler Ends Trial
of Nan Patterson.

New York, Nov. 29.—The jury in the Patterson murder trial was discharged
during the day and at the same time
District Attorney Jerome served notice on Miss Patterson's counsel that a new jury would be selected and a retrial begun at the term of court which opens next Monday.

The illness of Edward Dressler, a juror, who was stricken with apoplexy
last week, was the cause of the action.

THREE BROTHERS ARRESTED.
Two of Them Admit Shooting Frank Hollycross.

Danville, Ill., Nov. 29.—The three men who Sunday terrorized the city and fatally shot Frank Hollycross during a fight in a restaurant, were arrested Monday at Hopeston. They gave their names as John L. William H., and Milton F. Compton, claiming to be brothers. Two of the men admitted shooting Hollycross.

Trapeze Performer Killed.
St. Louis, Nov. 29.—During the performance at Paris on the Pike at the world's fair, one of the ropes broke during a trapeze exhibition and A. D.
Dibson, the performer, was thrown to the stage and instantly killed.

TWO ITALIANS KILLED

RESULT OF A BRIEF BATTLE ON THE STREETS OF A PENNSYLVANIA TOWN.

TRIED TO RESCUE COMRADE

GANG OF TOUGHS SHOOT DOWN ESCORT OF OFFICER WITH THE PRISONER.

Scranton, Pa., Nov. 29.—As a result of the efforts of the better class of Italians in and around Carbondale to rid their colonies of the members of a lawless gang who have been committing many outrages, a street battle occurred at that place Monday night which was attended with the loss of two lives.

At 8 o'clock Santo Carressi, one of the gang, was caught by a constable in the act of holding up and levying tribute on one of the Italians of the colony. The constable and three of the law and order men started to take Carressi to jail. Word was quickly passed to the gang's headquarters in a nearby saloon and four of them rushed out and opened fire on the constable and his posse. The latter returned the fire. When the attacking party emptied their revolvers they fled, leaving all three of the constable's escort lying in the road with bullets in their bodies. The constable protected himself by holding his prisoner in front of him.

Joseph Toleric was shot through the head and heart and died in a few minutes. Frank Ferrell died at the emergency hospital from a bullet in his breast near the heart and another in the abdomen. The third victim received a bullet in the arm and after recovering from the shock was able to walk home.

No trace has been found of the fugitive assassins. It is believed the gang is affiliated with the Mafia or some other like organization, as part of the tribute money is sent to headquarters in New York, according to the statements made by members of the gang when leaving tribute.

Among the outrages recently perpetrated was the knifing of four men who refused to pay tribute. In each instance the victim was called out of his house late at night and slashed across the face.

MINISTER ATTEMPTS MURDER.

Says He Intended to Kill a California Judge.

San Francisco, Nov. 29.—Rev. Isaac Selby of Australia, plaintiff in a damage suit, shot at Superior Judge Hebbard Monday while the latter was on the bench. The bullet came within an inch of the judge's head and lodged in the back of his chair. Selby was at once removed to the city prison and charged with attempt to commit murder.

Selby recently was sued for divorce. He conducted his own defense, but was unsuccessful, a decree against him being granted.

Judge Hebbard, who issued the decree, was trying a case when Selby arose from a seat in the courtroom and fired point blank at the judge, who rushed from the bench and grappled with his assailant, preventing him from firing another shot. Before being taken to his cell Selby said: "I shot at Judge Hebbard because that seems the only way for a man to get justice in this country. My only regret is that I seem to have bungled matters considerably. My intention was to kill him, but I was a trifle nervous."

WITH HER HEAD CRUSHED IN.

Body of a New York Woman Found in Her Apartments.

New York, Nov. 29.—With her head crushed in, the body of Mrs. Margaret Keeler was found in her apartment on the upper East Side of New York late Monday. Near by was a ten-inch coupling pin, with which she had evidently been murdered, for one end of it was covered with blood.

The Keeler family consisted of the husband, who is employed in a local mercantile establishment, James, aged twelve, and Mabel, aged nine. The children say they left home as usual Monday morning for school. Their father had gone to work earlier and when they started out their mother was in good spirits. At noon they found the door of the apartment locked, but thought their mother was out shopping. In the afternoon the boy climbed the fire escape and found his mother's body on her bed. She had been dead several hours.

Missing from the flat was jewelry worth $400 and also $200 in cash.

THINKS PEABODY WILL RETIRE.

Alva Adams Expects No Trouble Over Colorado Governorship.

Denver, Nov. 29.—Governor-Elect Alva Adams came to Denver from his home in Pueblo Monday and will remain until after the banquet to be given in his honor Tuesday night. He does not take the threat of the Republicans to prevent his accession to the governorship seriously and has rented a house here for the two years of his term. Mr. Adams expressed the opinion that Governor Peabody, after an investigation of the election returns, would reach the conclusion that he was not the people's choice for governor and would gracefully retire.

It is announced that Governor Peabody will appoint the two additional justices of the supreme court, irrespective of whether he holds office the next term or not. Under the constitutional amendment adopted at the recent election the court of appeals and supreme court consolidate on April 5 next, and two of the seven judges provided for are to be named by the governor. The legislature will meet one week before the next term of governor begins. During that time or prior the state canvassing board will declare the amendment adopted. Governor Peabody will make the appointments and the senate, if Republican, will confirm them. Should the Democrats control the senate Governor Peabody's appointments will be rejected and Governor Adams will appoint the two judges. It appears that the Democrats will control the senate by a majority of two or three, unless the state canvassing board throws out two or more of the Democrats who are apparently elected, as planned by the Republicans, who are preparing charges of fraud, and sends the Republican candidates. The Democrats are endeavoring to checkmate their opponents by preparations to prosecute Republican workers for alleged violations of the election laws.

NEW JURY NECESSARY.

Illness of Edward Dressler Ends Trial of Nan Patterson.

New York, Nov. 29.—The jury in the Patterson murder trial was discharged during the day and at the same time District Attorney Jerome served notice on Miss Patterson's counsel that a new jury would be selected and a retrial begun at the term of court which opens next Monday.

The illness of Edward Dressler, a juror, who was stricken with apoplexy last week, was the cause of the action.

WORK OF DESPERADOES.

Canadian Lines Being Blown Up in the Northwest.

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 29.—Flooded in a daring attempt to levy $100,000 by blackmailing the Canadian Pacific and Canadian Northern railways, an organized gang of desperadoes, it is believed, is fulfilling threats to blow up the various lines at different points in the Canadian Northwest. What is more, the police authorities also attribute several holdups and similar outrages to these men. So completely have they hidden all trace of their identity that traveling by rail has become dangerous. The police are baffled and, although a score of private detectives have been working hand in hand with the secret service men of the two railroads, nothing has come out of their investigations.

JEALOUSY THE MOTIVE.

Handsomeness Shot to Death at Albany, N. Y.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 23.—Joseph F. White, for ten years orderly in the state treasurer's office, Monday fatally shot Mrs. Josephine Russell, a handsome widow. Jealousy was the only apparent motive. White is sixty-five years old and a widower. He had just been released from the hospital and his friends claim that he was intoxicated when he did the shooting.

Mrs. Russell was thirty-five years old. White formerly boarded with the woman. Early in the morning he appeared at a milk depot where Mrs. Russell traded and spent the day until she came in, when he shot her in the neck. She fell and then, slowly and with deliberate aim, White fired three more shots into her body. He made no attempt to escape and when arrested denied committing the crime. Mrs. Russell was taken unconscious to a hospital where she soon died.

TASK NEARLY ENDED

JAPANESE OPERATIONS AGAINST PORT ARTHUR ARE MEETING WITH SUCCESS.

TAKING THE LAST OBSTACLE

LIGHT ARTILLERY DRIVING THE RUSSIANS FROM AN IMPORTANT POSITION.

Tokio, Nov. 29.—It is reported that the attack against 203-Metre hill by Japanese light artillery is succeeding. It is estimated that 90 per cent of the work of the complete occupation of Port Arthur will be finished with this height in the possession of the Japanese. No part of the harbor of Port Arthur will then be concealed from the Japanese.

MAY BE THE BEGINNING.
Skirmishes May Lead to Big Battle Near Mukden.

London, Nov. 29.—Generals Kuropatkin and Sakharoff are sending daily long details of apparently rather unimportant fighting, which may, however, possibly turn out to be the beginning of another great battle deciding the fate of Mukden.

Japanese in London decline to believe that there will be a cessation of hostilities till spring. General Sakharoff in addition to his report of the Japanese attack on Tsingtschen, announces that the Japanese in force occupied the village of Nanchang and the adjoining ravine in front of Poutloff (Lone Tree) hill. No further news from Port Arthur has been received beyond reports from Shanghai that the storming of the Russian stronghold continues.

According to the Daily Telegraph's dispatch from Chefoo, very few of Admiral Togo's ships are now seen blockading Port Arthur.

REPORT ACTIVE SKIRMISHING.

General Kuropatkin Says Japs Are Active on the Left Flank.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 29.—General Kuropatkin reports that there have been active skirmishing on the left flank for three days. It is the opinion of the general staff that the Japanese intend taking the offensive, as they cannot afford to wait until the Russians are further reinforced. It is held that the fighting to the eastward is doubtless with the purpose of feeling out the Russian positions preparatory to an advance in that direction, but as there are about 7,000 Russian troops southwest of Sintsintin, where fighting occurred on Nov. 26, and probably twice as many more in the mountains between Bentslauze and Sintsintin, any Japanese move from this quarter would entail serious fighting.

CHECKED BY ARTILLERY FIRE.

Jap Attack Upon Tsinkhetchen Ends in Failure.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 29.—General Sakharoff telegraphs as follows: "The Japanese attack on Tsinkhetchen was checked by our artillery fire, and the fighting ceased at 6 o'clock in the evening of Nov. 27. At no point did the enemy advance nearer than within 600 paces of our positions. In the midst of the battle a blinding snow storm caused a suspension of hostilities, and when the weather cleared at 3 o'clock in the afternoon a turning movement against our right flank was observed."

FIGHTING STILL CONTINUES.

Japs Keep Up Attack Upon Russian Position.

Suenkin, Nov. 29.—The attack by the Japanese upon General Rennenkamp's position on Nov. 24 resulted in three days' fighting at Tsinkhetchen.

chen, near Da-pass. Though the Japanese have been repulsed the fighting still continues. The Japanese have succeeded in placing several big siege guns in position with which they will be able to seriously harass the Russians.

RUSSIAN SQUADRON COALING.

Rojevsky's Ships Taking on Fuel Near Swakopmund.

Cape Town, Cape Colony, Nov. 29.—A dispatch to the Argus says that Admiral Rojevsky's division of the Russian Second Pacific Squadron is coaling off Swakopmund, German Southwest Africa.

Kaulbars Going to Mukden. Odessa, Russia, Nov. 29.—General Kaulbars, commander of the Third Manchurian army, left Odessa Monday for Mukden where he expects to arrive Dec. 14.

DATE NOT YET FIXED.

Preliminaries Being Arranged for Meeting of North Sea Commission.

London, Nov. 29.—No date has yet been fixed for the meeting of the North sea commission, but the preliminaries are being arranged. The British and Russian ambassadors visited Foreign Minister Goluchowsky at Vienna Monday to arrange the choice of an Austrian admiral should that be found necessary.

HIGH BANK CAVES IN.

Two Minnesota Miners Suffocated to Death.

Duluth, Nov. 29.—Through the caving in of a forty-five-foot high bank at a Mountain Iron open pit mine, Matt Rokka and John Kogla, two miners, were suffocated to death Monday afternoon. The bodies were recovered. Both victims were married.

Mrs. Edward C. Wall Dead.

Milwaukee, Nov. 29.—Mrs. Edward C. Wall died suddenly Monday night after a short illness. Mrs. Wall was the wife of Edward C. Wall, well known in business and political circles throughout the country.

SUSPECTS IDENTIFIED

CHAIN OF EVIDENCE AGAINST THREE MINNEAPOLIS MEN GROWS STRONGER.

Minneapolis, Nov. 29.—The chain of evidence against Orlin Kalderwit, John Kolb and Charles Hammond, suspected of the murder of little Freddie King at Columbia Heights Nov. 22, is growing stronger.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorn have positively identified Kalderwit and Hammond as two of the three men seen in front of the saloon a few moments before the murder. Both were certain that Kalderwit and Hammond were there. There was a short man in the trio and this description tallies with Kolb. In addition, there were others who saw the men and identified them as persons seen in the locality.

Three days' confinement in cells in the central police station is telling on the men and there seems to be a disposition on the part of Kalderwit and Kolb to tell what they know about the affair, and Hammond, who has been surly, is inclined to be tractable.

QUARLES TAKING NO CHANCES.

Wisconsin Senator Gets Out Nomination Papers.

Milwaukee, Nov. 29.—Nomination papers in accordance with the provision of the primary election law have been prepared and will be circulated during the day in the interest of United States Senator Joseph V. Quarles, who is a candidate for reelection. The papers are prepared in view of the fact that the primary election law is now in full force, and that the candidate for senator must be nominated at a special primary to be held two weeks before the time of the election of a senator by the legislature in January.

Officials of the state have not yet announced their decision with regard to the applicability of the primary law to the senatorial election, but Mr. Quarles is convinced that the primary is necessary, and will take no chances of overlooking necessary preliminaries for the approaching contest.

THE PRESIDENT AT PITTSBURG.

Train of the Chief Executive Makes Only a Brief Stop.

Pittsburg, Nov. 29.—The train bearing President Roosevelt to Washington from St. Louis arrived in Pittsburg at 8:50 p. m. and departed ten minutes later. Only one stop was made between Dennison, O., and this city. At Dennison the president was greeted by a great crowd. Scores of school children were there. On the journey to St. Louis the president was presented a raccoon, which is being taken back to Washington. In remarks at Dennison the president said: "I want to tell you all 'Good evening' and say how pleased I am to see you again, and to tell you that the 'coon' is getting along well. He feeds on everything and shows a little inclination to feed on every man too. I wish you good health and good luck, especially, the little folks."

Woman Commits Suicide.

Washington, Nov. 29.—Mrs. Elizabeth McComas, wife of Ernest R. McComas of the postoffice department, committed suicide by cutting her throat. Mrs. McComas was a daughter of General Mower. Ill health was assigned as the cause of her act.

TWO ITALIANS KILLED

RESULT OF A BRIEF BATTLE ON THE STREETS OF A PENNSYLVANIA TOWN.

TRIED TO RESCUE COMRADE

BANG OF TOWNS SHOOT DOWN ESCORT OF OFFICER WITH THE PRISONER.

Seranton, Pa., Nov. 29.—As a result of the efforts of the better class of Italians in and around Carbonale to rid their colonies of the members of a lawless gang who have been committing many outrages, a street battle occurred at that place Monday night which was attended with the loss of two lives.

At 8 o'clock Santo Carressi, one of the gang, was caught by a constable in the act of holding up and levying tribute on one of the Italians of the colony. The constable and three of the law and order men started to take Carressi to jail. Word was quickly passed to the gang's headquarters in a nearby saloon and four of them rushed out and opened fire on the constable and his posse. The latter returned the fire. When the attacking party emptied their revolvers they fled, leaving all three of the constable's escort lying in the road with bullets in their bodies. The constable protected himself by holding his prisoner in front of him.

Joseph Tolerico was shot through the head and heart and died in a few minutes. Frank Ferrell died at the emergency hospital from a bullet in his breast near the heart and another in the abdomen. The third victim received a bullet in the arm and after recovering from the shock was able to walk home.

No trace has been found of the fugitive assailants. It is believed the gang is affiliated with the Mafia or some other like organization, as part of the tribute money is sent to headquarters in New York, according to the statements made by members of the gang when levying tribute.

Among the outrages recently perpetrated was the knifing of four men who refused to pay tribute. In each instance the victim was called out of his house late at night and slashed across the face.

NEW PHASE IN FRAUD CASES.

Another Person May Be Involved in Oregon Affair.

Portland, Ore., Nov. 29.—A new phase in the land fraud trial developed Monday when the name of George A. Howe, to whom was deeded seven of the alleged bogus homestead titles, was brought into the case. Further documentary evidence brought to light that Howe had in turn deeded to Horace G. McKinley a tract of land in Section 15 south, Range 1 east. District Attorney Hall announced to the court that the government would prove that Howe is in reality one of the conspirators under another name. The government announced during the proceedings that it would prove the object of the alleged conspirators in locating in 11-7 was not to acquire those lands permanently, but merely to give them scrip rights, that they might exchange scrip for land to which they desired to acquire title.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1904.

Weather

Forecast—Fair and warmer.

Temperature (Record kept by Dr. J. L. Camp from 7 a. m. yesterday morning to 7 a. m. this morning)—Maximum 23 above zero; minimum 29 above zero.

Plowing on Thanksgiving day in Northern Minnesota is something one does not witness every year but 1904 has been an exception. The farmer who has neglected his fall work this year is certainly not over anxious to see it done.

The eighth victim of the reckless hunter met his death near Duluth on Sunday. The open season for the killing of men supposed to be deer closes on Wednesday and while an occasional man will be killed out of season the slaughter will not be so great.

A citizen of Chicago whose son was killed in a foot ball game at the school which he was attending is seeking the enactment of laws prohibiting foot ball in Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin. There are fathers who would sanction the extension of the law to Minnesota after it is in good working shape in the states named.

At the coming out banquet of J. B. Gillilan in Minneapolis the other night one of his admirers advanced the argument that he should be elected United States senator because he was rich and could afford to maintain an establishment of his own in Washington and keep open house for society people instead of living at a hotel. There's argument for you. The state of Minnesota should be represented by a rich, society man rather than a man of the people who will look after their interests.

The treasury department is making experiments looking to the development of a new style of paper which will have many advantages over that now used in the manufacture of paper money, one of the requirements being that the new bank note shall be soft and velvety instead of crisp and harsh like the paper money of today is when it first goes into circulation. It is claimed that the process is nearly ready for trial and that with it a bank note can be gotten ready for circulation in 60 days less time than under the old system. If this problem has been solved it will be a source of gratification to the department as well as the public.

The press throughout the state are commenting on Judge Collins' political future and some credit him with a desire to be the candidate of the republican party for governor in 1906, while there are those who think he is trimming his sails to become the chief justice of the Minnesota supreme court to succeed Judge Start, whose term of office expires in January, 1907. Then there are those who think that with thirty-one years as an office holder in the state under the republican party and who refused to stand by the party in its nomination for governor in 1901, he has been honored to the fullest extent.

REPRESENTATIVE-ELECT JOHN LUND, of Minneapolis, is busy upon a measure that he will introduce at the coming session of the legislature placing the governor and all state officers under the provisions of the primary election law. Other amendments will be added looking toward confining voting at the primaries to strict party lines. There are several defects in the law as it now stands on the statute books, but one of the most obnoxious is that feature which allows a democrat to vote for the nomination of a republican or vice versa and place a weak or objectionable candidate in nomination for the purpose of defeating him at the regular election, as many counties in the state can testify to from their experience of recent date. The principle of the primary law is right and it is hoped that the objectionable features will be eliminated at the coming session, but it is a matter that will require considerable study.

Those who laughed at the idea of Johnson's election as governor being a menace to the re-election of United States Senator Clapp and who claimed that the endorsement of the state convention meant his return without a struggle cannot now fail to see their mistake. While not all of the republican Johnson supporters are arrayed against the return of the junior senator to the seat he has so ably filled, the leaders in Hennepin county who took such an active part and made the election of a democrat as governor of Minnesota possible are now no longer under cover but are openly advocating the election of a Minneapolis man to the position, in fact this senatorial scheme was one of the principal reasons for the bitter opposition to Dunn in that city. R. C. Dunn openly favored Clapp's reelection in conformity to the endorsement of the republicans in convention assembled and the bolting republicans of Hennepin county who defeated Dunn now demand the defeat of Clapp. Will the republicans of Minnesota allow this mugwump wing of the party to dictate who shall represent the state in the halls of the national legislature and bring about the defeat of Senator Clapp, the peer of any man in Minnesota, simply because he chose to stand by his party and was loyal to his convictions? We think not.

STOVE

SALE

This will be the First Genuine Great Stove Sale ever held in Brainerd; the particular difference between this sale and the many other sales going on at the present time, is that we do not oblige you to pay spot cash to get the benefit of it.

We have fifty-one different kinds of Heaters and six varieties of Ranges and we have to keep about five hundred stoves on hand to back up these samples, and our store is so crowded with goods that we haven't room even to show such a large variety of samples.

What we want to do this fall is to close out this entire stock so as to start in next season with a smaller variety and consequently smaller stock. We would rather sell all of these stoves on the installment plan than to sell only part of them for cash and carry the balance over another year, and we would rather you would have the use and comfort of a good Heater or Range and pay for it at your convenience than to keep them in our warehouse where they are doing no one any good.

It is rather an unusual proceeding to offer goods on the installment plan at a closing out sale, therefore we have explained our reasons as above, to convince you that we mean business.

Come in and see what Bargains we have to offer is all we ask.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1904.

Weather

Forecast—Fair and warmer.

Temperature (Record kept by Dr. J. L. Camp from 7 a. m. yesterday morning to 7 a. m. this morning)—Maximum 23 above zero; minimum 29 above zero.

Flowing on Thanksgiving day in Northern Minnesota is something one does not witness every year but 1904 has been an exception. The farmer who has neglected his fall work this year is certainly not over anxious to see it done.

The eighth victim of the reckless hunter met his death near Duluth on Sunday. The open season for the killing of men supposed to be deer closes on Wednesday and while an occasional man will be killed out of season the slaughter will not be so great.

A citizen of Chicago whose son was killed in a foot ball game at the school which he was attending is seeking the enactment of laws prohibiting foot ball in Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin. There are fathers who would sanction the extension of the law to Minnesota after it is in good working shape in the states named.

At the coming-out banquet of J. B. Giffillan in Minneapolis the other night one of his admirers advanced the argument that he should be elected United States senator because he was rich and could afford to maintain an establishment of his own in Washington and keep open house for society people instead of living at a hotel. There's argument for you. The state of Minnesota should be represented by a rich, society man rather than a man of the people who will look after their interests.

The treasury department is making experiments looking to the development of a new style of paper which will have many advantages over that now used in the manufacture of paper money, one of the requirements being that the new bank note shall be soft and velvety instead of crisp and harsh like the paper money of today is when it first goes into circulation. It is claimed that the process is nearly ready for trial and that with it a bank note can be gotten ready for circulation in 90 days less time than under the old system. If this problem has been solved it will be a source of gratification to the department as well as the public.

The press throughout the state are commenting on Judge Collins' political future and some credit him with a desire to be the candidate of the republican party for governor in 1906, while there are those who think he is justifying his sails to become the chief justice of the Minnesota supreme court to succeed Judge Start, whose term of office expires in January, 1907. Then there are those who think that with thirty-one years as an office holder in the state under the republican party and who refused to stand by the party in its nomination for governor in 1904, he has been honored to the fullest extent.

REPRESENTATIVE-ELECT JOHN LUND, of Minneapolis, is busy upon a measure that he will introduce at the coming session of the legislature placing the governor and all state officers under the provisions of the primary election law. Other amendments will be added looking toward confining voting at the primaries to strict party lines. There are several defects in the law as it now stands on the statute books, but one of the most obnoxious is that feature which allows a democrat to vote for the nomination of a republican or vice versa and place a weak or objectionable candidate in nomination for the purpose of defeating him at the regular election, as many counties in the state can testify to from their experience of recent date. The principle of the primary law is right and it is hoped that the objectionable features will be eliminated at the coming session, but it is a matter that will require considerable study.

Those who laughed at the idea of Johnson's election as governor being a menace to the re-election of United States Senator Clapp and who claimed that the endorsement of the state convention meant his return without a struggle cannot now fail to see their mistake. While not all of the republican Johnson supporters are arrayed against the return of the junior senator to the seat he has so ably filled, the leaders in Hennepin county who took such an active part and made the election of a democrat as governor of Minnesota possible are now no longer under cover but are openly advocating the election of a Minneapolis man to the position, in fact this senatorial scheme was one of the principal reasons for the bitter opposition to Dunn in that city. R. C. Dunn openly favored Clapp's re-election in conformity to the endorsement of the republicans in convention assembled and the bolting republicans of Hennepin county who defeated Dunn now demand the defeat of Clapp. Will the republicans of Minnesota allow this mugwump wing of the party to dictate who shall represent the state in the halls of the national legislature and bring about the defeat of Senator Clapp, the peer of any man in Minnesota, simply because he chose to stand by his party and was loyal to his convictions? We think not.

STOVE

SALE

This will be the First Genuine Great Stove Sale ever held in Brainerd; the particular difference between this sale and the many other sales going on at the present time, is that we do not oblige you to pay spot cash to get the benefit of it.

We have fifty-one different kinds of Heaters and six varieties of Ranges and we have to keep about five hundred stoves on hand to back up these samples, and our store is so good Heater or Range and pay for it at your convenience than to keep them in our warehouse where they are doing no one any good.

It is rather an unusual proceeding to offer goods on the installment plan at a closing out sale, therefore we have explained our reasons as above, to convince you that we mean business.

crowded with goods that we haven't room even to show such a large variety of samples.

What we want to do this fall is to close out this entire stock so as to start in next season with a smaller variety and consequently smaller stock. We would rather sell all of these stoves on the installment plan than to sell only part of them for cash and carry the balance over another year, and we would rather you would have the use and comfort of a

George W. Adair, who Owns Farm West of Town, is a Victim of Audacious Lawbreakers

HAULED IT OFF FOR FIREWOOD

Done in Broad Daylight and Thieves Were Seen by Some of the Neighbors

When George W. Adair, who lives out on the Gull Lake road, went to a farm he owns out that way yesterday morning he was very much astonished to find the house gone slick and clean. The house, a log one, had been built by Mr. Adair and his brother-in-law jointly. His brother-in-law recently purchased a piece of land and removed the roof and floors to use on a house on his own land. It was the intention of Mr. Adair to re-roof the house and use it again, but when he came along Monday he found that every log had been removed. Clarence Fox, who lives in sight of the house saw two men drive up with teams Saturday and proceed to tear down the house and load the logs onto their wagons and drive off toward Brainerd, but he supposed that Mr. Adair had sold the logs to some one. Mr. Adair was in town yesterday looking around to see if he could find the logs. He said he did care particularly for their value but he wanted to make an example of the thief. Anyone who purchased any wood Saturday that looked like old house logs will do well to communicate with Mr. Adair.

AN AUSPICIOUS OPENING

The Henry I. Cohen Real Estate Agency Makes a Sale the First Day.

Henry I. Cohen signaled the day of his entry into the real estate business by closing the sale of the farm of Hans Neilson, living seven miles from the city on the Mille Lacs road, to Harry G. Otis, of this city. Mr. Neilson expects to leave in the spring for the state of Washington on account of his health. Mr. Cohen is to be congratulated on the auspicious opening of his business venture.

Rev. Knowles and Party of Friends Have Big Luck Hunting--Last of Party Came Down Today.

Messrs. Andrews and Chase, of Mankato, and White and Olson, of Perham, came down from the north today. They were members of the same hunting party with Rev. Knowles, who came down the last of the week. The party had excellent luck, killing four moose besides a number of deer and rabbits and partidges galore. They brought two big moose down with them, one going to Mr. White at Perham and one to Mr. Andrews at Mankato. The other two moose they were unable to bring out on account of the swamps being unfrozen. The gentlemen were the guests of Mr. Knowles while in the city today.

WILL HAVE BASE BALL TEAM

Last Year's Aggregation Will All Be Here With Probable Additions--Will Be Pennant Winners.

Jim Boyle, one of Brainerd's crack base ball pitchers, was home over Thanksgiving from Proctor, Minn., where he is in a machine shop, and talks freely of the prospects of securing a pennant winning ball team for Brainerd next season. The entire last year's team will be here from the beginning except Eddie Boyle, who is attending college at Valparaiso, Ind., and he will be home when the college season closes. Mr. White, the owner of the ball ground, has been trying to induce the Messrs. Boyle to lease the park for a skating rink. If this is done, and he has it leveled off, it will improve it as a ball park also.

GIVE A PARTY

Held a Very Pleasant Social Session at Walker's Hall Last Evening

HALL BEAUTIFULLY DECORATED

About a Hundred Members and Invited Guests Enjoy a Most Pleasant Time.

Probably one of the pleasantest as well as the swellest dancing parties of the season was that given by the Black Hawks in Walker hall last night. The hall was very prettily decorated in black and gold, the colors of the club. Two cozy corners were arranged in the front end of the hall with the orchestra between them. In the center room at the rear of the hall a very tasty den was arranged with a teepee effect.

About a hundred society people, the members of the club and their invited guests, were present and spent several pleasant hours dancing to the fine music furnished by Graham's orchestra.

FIRST INSTALLMENT RECEIVED

New Books Received at the Brainerd Public Library--They Will Be Catalogued and Classified.

The first installment of new books for the Brainerd public library has been received and Miss Bess Burgoyne, the popular librarian, is having them catalogued and classified. They will be put on the shelves as fast as they are catalogued.

It has been intimated that the committee which has charge of the dedicatory ceremonies has decided that the ceremony will be held sometime between December 10 and 15.

School Board Prohibits Dances.

The action of the Little Falls board of education in prohibiting dances and public balls by high school pupils, excepting by special permission of the board, is being commented upon freely over the state, and favorably in most instances.

There will be a mission conference held at the Norwegian-Danish Lutheran church, 523, Bluff avenue South on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, December 6th and 7th. The sessions will begin at 7:30 each evening. Revs. Wilford A. Johnson, Audubon, B. J. Larson, Lake Park, E. J. Owri, Pelican Rapids, and C. M. Hallenger, Little Falls, will be present and assist the pastor in these meetings. All are cordially invited.

Our line of hand bags include all the new and up-to-date novelties at reduced prices. H. P. Dunn & Co. 144tf

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

"WAY DOWN EAST."

There are actually 21 people in the cast of "Way Down East" and the company carries a special carload of scenery. The play will be produced here on Monday evening, December 5.

"Way Down East" is Wm. A. Brady's famous success. It is a plain story of plain people. The central figure of the story is Anna Moore, a girl of a cloud on her past, embracing a mock marriage. Anna finds a home on a New England farm, the farmer's son falls in love with her and then a simple plot unravels itself to a happy end.

The play is pure and wholesome in tone, possessing a quaint humor and affording a lesson that is made acceptable and pleasurable in the receiving. Prices $1.00, 75c, 50c and 25c. Seat sale opens Saturday morning at H. P. Dunn & Co.'s.

"RUDOLPH AND ADOLPH"

Broadhurst & Currie will present that merry farce comedy, "Rudolph & Adolph" at the Brainerd opera house on Dec. 8. They will furnish a strictly high class offering in the comedy line and one that will prove most satisfying to the general public as well as theatre-goers. If the well seasoned judgment of capable critics may be taken as a criterion, "Rudolph & Adolph" has been one of the greatest laughing successes in the larger cities during the past three seasons. All the appointments necessary for a high class performance are carried on tour and the cast has been chosen with care and judgment.

$13.50 to Chicago via North-Western Line. Account of the International Live Stock Exposition at Chicago the North-Western Line will sell tickets to Chicago at the above rate from St. Paul on November 26, 27, 28, 1904, with return limit of Dec. 5.

Gen'l Passenger Agt.,
St. Paul, Minn.

There will be no meeting of the Art Club until Dec. 14. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to become members, and lend their aid, be enthusiastic and earnest workers with us.

Get your masquerade suits ready, as the Jolly Jokers Glee Club is now talking of giving its second annual masquerade ball at Gardner hall Thursday evening, Dec. 29th. Graham's orchestra will furnish the music. Tickets will be 75 cents. 150t2w1t1

MAY HAVE ANOTHER MATCH

Frank Coleman and Max Lutberg May Wrestle in Brainerd in the Near Future.

Frank Coleman, the wrestler, is still in the city and will remain here for some time. Negotiations have been entered into with Max Lutberg, the champion welter-weight wrestler of the world, for a match to be pulled off in Brainerd as soon as possible. If the negotiations are successful Mr. Coleman will remain here and go into training.

A Card.

The undersigned desire to thank the sincere and heartfelt thanks to the many kind friends who tendered aid and sympathy during the long illness and upon the death of our beloved mother. We feel very thankful to these dear friends for their many acts of kindness, and shall ever hold them in grateful remembrance. It is indeed a great consolation in the hour of affliction to realize that we have so many kind friends and neighbors.

FIRST INSTALLMENT RECEIVED

New Books Received at the Brainerd Public Library--They Will Be Catalogued and Classified.

The first installment of new books for the Brainerd public library has been received and Miss Bess Burgoyne, the popular librarian, is having them catalogued and classified. They will be put on the shelves as fast as they are catalogued.

It has been intimated that the committee which has charge of the dedicatory ceremonies has decided that the ceremony will be held sometime between December 10 and 15.

School Board Prohibits Dances.

The action of the Little Falls board of education in prohibiting dances and public balls by high school pupils, excepting by special permission of the board, is being commented upon freely over the state, and favorably in most instances.

There will be a mission conference held at the Norwegian-Danish Lutheran church, 523, Bluff avenue South on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, December 6th and 7th. The sessions will begin at 7:30 each evening. Revs. Wilford A. Johnson, Audubon, B. J. Larson, Lake Park, E. J. Owri, Pelican Rapids, and C. M. Hallenger, Little Falls, will be present and assist the pastor in these meetings. All are cordially invited.

Our line of hand bags include all the new and up-to-date novelties at reduced prices. H. P. Dunn & Co.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

"WAY DOWN EAST."

There are actually 21 people in the cast of "Way Down East" and the company carries a special carload of scenery. The play will be produced here on Monday evening, December 5.

"Way Down East" is Wm. A. Brady's famous success. It is a plain story of plain people. The central figure of the story is Anna Moore, who has a cloud on her past, embracing a mock marriage. Anna finds a home on a New England farm, the farmer's son falls in love with her and then a simple plot unravels itself to a happy end.

The play is pure and wholesome in tone, possessing a quaint humor and affording a lesson that is made acceptable and pleasurable in the receiving. Prices $1.00, 75c, 50c and 25c. Seat sale opens Saturday morning at H. P. Dunn & Co.'s.

"RUDOLPH AND ADOLPH"

Broadhurst & Currie will present that merry farce comedy, "Rudolph and Adolph" at the Brainerd opera house on Dec. 8. They will furnish a strictly high class offering in the comedy line and one that will prove most satisfying to the general public as well as theatre-goers. If the well seasoned judgment of capable critics may be taken as a criterion, "Rudolph and Adolph" has been one of the greatest laughing successes in the larger cities during the past three seasons. All the appointments necessary for a high class performance are carried on tour and the cast has been chosen with care and judgment.

$13.50 to Chicago via North-Western Line.

Account of the International Live Stock Exposition at Chicago the North-Western Line will sell tickets to Chicago at the above rate from St. Paul on November 26, 27, 28, 1904, with return limit of Dec. 5.

For sleeping car reservations, time of trains, etc., address,

T. W. TEASDALE,
Gen'l Passenger Agt.,
St. Paul, Minn

There will be no meeting of the Art Club until Dec. 14. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to become members, and lend their aid, be enthusiastic and earnest workers with us.

Get your masquerade suits ready, as the Jolly Jokers Glee Club is now talking of giving its second annual masquerade ball at Gardner hall Thursday evening, Dec. 29th. Graham's orchestra will furnish the music. Tickets will be 75 cents.

MAY HAVE ANOTHER MATCH

Frank Coleman and Max Lutberg May Wrestle in Brainerd in the Near Future.

Frank Coleman, the wrestler, is still in the city and will remain here for some time. Negotiations have been entered into with Max Lutberg, the champion welter-weight wrestler of the world, for a match to be pulled off in Brainerd as soon as possible. If the negotiations are successful Mr. Coleman will remain here and go into training.

A Card.

The undersigned desire to extend their sincere and heartfelt thanks to the many kind friends who tendered aid and sympathy during the long illness and upon the death of our beloved mother. We feel very thankful to these dear friends for their many acts of kindness, and shall ever hold them in grateful remembrance. It is indeed a great consolation in the hour of affliction to realize that we have so many kind friends and neighbors.
